

Call for Papers
Annual Conference of the German Association for Insurance Science e.V.
125th anniversary of the association
13 and 14 March 2024 in Berlin

The Annual Meeting of the German Association for Insurance Science e.V. is currently planned for March 13 - 14, 2024 in Berlin.

You are invited to present your research at the annual meeting. The topics cover all fields of research in insurance sciences. Proposals for presentations can be submitted by members of research institutes and academic teaching institutions (in particular also by young scientists) as well as by personalities from industry and administration.

Please apply only if you are also available for a virtual event format via livestreaming. Abstracts of no more than three pages must include the expected results and significance of the research. Explicitly funded are research papers by PhD students. Papers can be submitted in German or English. Your cover page should include the title, names and contact information of all authors, as well as three keywords that best describe your research project. In addition, please send us a blind submission in the same email for possible use in the review process.

Please also note that you must include with your submission a completed copy of our Data Protection and Livestreaming Consent Form, which can be downloaded from our homepage under the 2023 Annual Meeting.

The deadline for submissions is September 30, 2023.

Send your proposals by e-mail to:
German Association for Insurance Science e.V. (callforpaper@dvwf.de).

Articles that have already been accepted for publication cannot be submitted. Authors will be notified by e-mail of the Program Committee's decision regarding their work in November by DVfVW e.V.

For questions regarding content, please contact the chair of the program committee, Prof. Dr. Nadine Gatzert, Friedrich-Alexander University Erlangen-Nürnberg (nadine.gatzert@fau.de).
